

CIGARETTE

No cigarette has the same delicious flavor as Lucky Strike. Because Lucky Strike is the toasted cigarette.

LOCALS

M. P. Bailey & Son will open their ice cream parlor to the public, Friday, Mar. 18

H. L. McDearman was in Nashville several days last week.

William Colonel Anderson, oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Anderson, who has been critically ill from pneumonia fever, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Cason of Carthage, have been visiting relatives on R-2.

In publishing the account of the death of Mr. West in last week's paper, we erred in the name. It should have been Joe T. West instead of James T.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Young, of R-1, Tuesday March 8th, a 11½ pound girl. Her name is Edna Reeves.

Miss Ruby Pate has recovered from her recent illness.

Mrs. J. F. Gaines who has been sick for the past two weeks is improving Ernest Botts returned to Nashville Wednesday, after a several days stay with home folks at Whitleyville. Mr. Botts is a valued employee of the Jones Barber Shops, in the Arcade, and will be glad to have his friends call and see him when in Nashville.

Clarence Gwin, 9 year old son of Mr and Mrs Tom Gwin, is recovering from an attack of scarlet fever.

J. E. (Ned) Gailbreath of Cookeville, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Belle Dewitt, of Freestate.

John Wilmoth, of Gainesboro R-1, has recently bought the stock of goods formerly owned by George Young, and is now in charge of the business at that place. Until a few months ago, Mr. Wilmoth lived in Detroit. When the big plants shut down up there they hit him hard one, knocked him down and out, and John batted 'em back to his old stamping ground in Tennessee, where a man can live regardless of what happens in Detroit. Anytime you are near his place of business give him a call and make a purchase. We'll guarantee you a square deal.

BEAUTIFUL DRESS GOODS.

GINGHAMS - If you please have been graduated from the kitchen and are invading the parlor without meeting a substantial objection. And why not? Gingham was never so beautiful, so gorgeously colored, so daintily designed, so altogether fascinating and fresh looking as those of Spring, 1921.

Aristocratic Voiles

Fine, soft, richly colored and distinctively designed, the new voiles are just a matter of pride and satisfaction to us. These beautiful materials will make dresses unique and individual, with the stamp of refinement and good taste—and all at a cost really trifling, considering their superiority.

Rippling Silks

Brilliantly beautiful, in radiant colors, for evening frocks, blouses, coat linings and beautiful underwear, the new silks will bring joy to feminine hearts, especially when the modest prices are observed.

Longcloth and Nainsook

Whether these materials are desired for fine lingerie, shirt waists, children's undergarments, or infants' dresses, the desired quality is sure to be here. The values in this selling should be seen by every thrifty woman.

Your Petticoat

You will want a fresh new petticoat for wear under the spring frock or suit, and we have them in a wonderful variety of pretty styles, some in cotton, messaline, taffa, and satin. Flounced, scalloped or plain—as you wish, in black, plain colors or flowered daintily. All at prices very satisfactory.

Bring us your produce. We pay the highest market price for all kinds of Country Produce. IT WILL PAY YOU TO TRADE with US, if you not now doing so. TRY US.
